Leader Spotlight

Daniel S. Strick

This week's spotlight is focused on Daniel S. Strick, the publications chair for DRI's Professional Liability Committee. He is a senior associate at Lucas and Cavalier, LLC, a regional litigation firm with its offices in Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey. His practice focuses on professional liability defense, commercial litigation, media/tech/cyber liability, insurance coverage, and claims against debt collectors. Mr. Strick litigates complex cases at the trial and appellate levels. He is admitted to practice law in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Among his published articles is, "Legal Malpractice: Can Lawyers Be Sued by Non-Clients?" published in the July 2012 issue of For The Defense. On July 12, 2013, he contributed to DRI Today an article regarding Pennsylvania Superior Court's review on a limitation of damages in legal malpractice cases. He contributes to his firm's newsletter, Legal Counsellor.

Mr. Strick received a Bachelor of Arts from Brandeis University in 1998. He earned his J.D. from Villanova University School of Law in 2001. While in law school, he served as editor of the Villanova Sports and Entertainment Law Journal. He clerked for the Honorable Ronald E. Bookbinder and the Honorable Marie White Bell in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Burlington County.

In addition to DRI, he belongs to the ABA (Tort Trial and Insurance section; Professions' Officers' and Directors' Liability Committee; Law Firm Management section), the Media Law Resource Center, the Temple American Inn of Court, and the Burlington County, New Jersey Bar Associations.

In his spare time, Mr. Strick enjoys spending time with his wife and two young children, Emily and Max. He enjoys traveling, scuba diving and golf. Mr. Strick is an avid baseball fan and is rooting on his hometown team, the Los Angeles Dodgers, throughout the playoffs.
